50 Places To Buy Costumes Online

From Halloween to Xmas, birthdays to weddings it seem that there is always a reason to dress up in funny, sexy or scary costumes and we love it.

From the kids to grandpa everybody loves a fancy dress party and these days it is easier than ever to kit yourself out as a super hero, a bunny girl or even a real rabbit.

The internet has brought the world into our sitting room and with a few clicks of a mouse we can browse hundreds, if not thousands of quality yet affordable fancy dress costumes.

One of the major benefits of the availability of online costume stores is that is now easy to find costumes for couples, be it a man and a woman, two girls or a couple of guys out on the razz.

When you are stuck for ideas as to what you should wear at a costume party if you are going as a couple a quick browse through the costume stores online will give you a wealth of ideas.

Ten Points To Bear In Mind When Buying Costumes Online

By Roman Zubarev

1. Shop early. Give yourself time for returns and exchanges if necessary.
2. Search, search, search. Online stores categorize costumes to make it easy to narrow it down to exactly what you're looking for. You can search by any terms you like – sexy pirate, tween witch, men's superhero, then find a variety of choices. Then search by price.
3. Look for bargains and promo codes – Once you find a costume you like at a price you like, look for websites that beat competitor prices. One of the best is costumediscounters.com who will beat any price by 20%. Not 20% of the difference but 20% less than the lowest price.
4. Consider the weather where you live. Can the costume accommodate long underwear or wearing street clothes underneath, etc? Does it bare exposed skin?
5. Look at the pictures closely, compared to the product description to know what you're getting. The picture might show the Star Wars Clone Trooper holding a blaster but that blaster is probably sold separately. Better sites will have accessories and add-ons featured for sale with the costume to make shopping easier

6. Check the size charts – don't purchase from a site that doesn't offer a size chart. Just like with regular clothes, some manufactures run big and others run small. Just because you wear a size 6 in your favorite brand of jeans doesn't mean you'll be a size 6 costume. Now is not the time for vanity. If the chart says you are larger size then get the larger size.

7. Is the costume appropriate for the venue? If the costume is mini, consider wearing opaque tights underneath rather than the fishnets it may come with if you plan to be at a party with kids.

8. Know the return policy. Many online stores will only pay for returns if the item is damaged. Costume Discounters.com will exchange items for any reason, like if it doesn't fit or you simple don't like it. It's free and easy.

9. When in doubt or if you have questions, call customer service. Ask if customer service has access to the costumes in case they need to pull a costume to correctly answer a question.

10. Have a safe Halloween. If your kids plan to trick or treat at night, consider a costume in a bright color or simply adding some reflective tape to their shoes or Halloween treat bag.

How To Select Funny Couple Costumes

What makes you and your partner laugh? I believe that's the first thing you should ask yourselves when trying to decide on a funny couples costume for Halloween. Wearing a costume that makes you laugh not only put you in a mood for a good time, but allows you to easily get into character of the costume. Think about it, you'll already know how the character walks, talks and acts so it will be easy for you to get into the character. Not that you'll be acting like that character all night, but it makes for a good time when you can say or do something that naturally that makes you and partner laugh!

50 Places To Buy Costumes Online

People can tell when others enjoy what they're wearing. A couple wearing a costume they find funny and relate to easily stand out by how they interact with each other. Usually, if one person is wearing a funny costume they really like, and the other didn't give any thought to what they're wearing, the interaction will be different. Wearing costumes that are related sort causes you to interact with your partner more. So that is the second point of emphasis of couple costumes – wear something related

You've heard the saying, "laugh at yourself, and others will laugh with you?" Well, that's so true when it comes to couple costumes. Let's look at some funny couple costumes that you and partner might enjoy wearing for Halloween.

Funny Objects

think of these costumes as more of a mascot type look! A fun costume of this type is the Bacon & Eggs couples costume! Everyone knows bacon and eggs, so people quickly identify with what you and partner are doing! Another pair costumes which has automatic recognition is a plug and socket costume combie.

If you're into dressing up like objects then the Plug and Socket costume is something that might grab your interest. By themselves these kind of costumes usually can't stand on their own for the humor. When paired up these are some hilarious costumes!

Cartoon Characters

If you're into cartoon characters then you might consider characters from the movie Toy Story. Actually, Toy Story III was out this summer, and once again as the other two in the series was entertaining for both young and old. Woody and Jessie costumes are available, so if you feel like these are characters that you not only like watching but would enjoy bringing them to life, then consider them for your outfits. Another cartoon is the Simpsons with Homer and Marge to emulate!

50 Places To Buy Costumes Online

If you're not into the modern cartoons scene, then you might consider past blockbuster cartoon characters like the Flintstones or Popeye. Although, these are old cartoons they are still well known characters and easily bring a laugh to those growing up watching them on tv.

Funny Horror Movie Characters

A funny costume isn't necessarily something that is normally considered funny. A lot of times a costume can have some kind of sarcasm associated with it which makes it funny. Others are just flat out copies of comedic characters from the movies or cartoons. Horror movie costumes can be rather funny too, as a lot of horror movies are made with a touch of sarcasm. A great example of this can be seen in the series of Chucky movies. The cute little doll which comes to life and starts killing everybody had some pretty gruesome scenes, however, the way Chucky delivers these deeds is laden sarcasm throughout the movies.

Chucky along with a sexy female version of Chucky is readily available. Ones who have seen the Chucky movies will take one look at these costumes and crack up laughing. You'll be able to tell who hasn't seen the movies, as they will be the ones with the puzzled look on their face!

Funny Types of People

These are costumes which exaggerate funny aspects of every day people, politicians, celebrities, athletes, etc... A good example is the Tacky

Tourist costume! Now there are different kinds of tourist – tropical or vegas tourist, which basically embody the funny aspects of tourists. Everybody can relate to these looks. Hey, you're probably guilty of wearing these fashions as well!

Well, these are some ideas which can hopefully give you some good laughs. Halloween is a fun time, so be creative and have a good time with your partner!

Couple Costumes Co. provides a wealth of ideas for couple costumes on how to combine looks, and where to acquire the outfits for a variety of themes.

Have A Successful Costume Party

Let us discuss six pointers to help with making your own adult costume bash a roaring success.

a) Theme - Should you be contemplating a costume party, you almost certainly have got a style in your mind. Possibly, it is a casino event, a hot gal bachelorette party, an Oscar night of your own or another special special event. Whatever your theme, take some time establishing that thought within your head. Examine each of the preparations and discover just how many offer the possibility to boost your theme. The more committed your arrangements are to your theme the more completely committed your guests will be at the get together.

b). Stationery - At times adult costume celebrations drop apart before they commence. For costume celebrations a theme packed party invite establishes the tone and presents the appropriate content. Make use of some artwork to underscore your party's idea. Adopt the language in the party invite to your idea and don't be hesitant to offer reward for the most apt attires. Show your visitors that this is one particular costume bash that will not be off message and also their efforts will certainly be valued.

c) Costume - Certain guests will be cautious to get in costume. Many of them do not realize where to commence the search for excellent theme outfits. Chances are that you have actually scoped the landscape. Help them out by simply incorporating a costume party strategy to your invite.
